

DANDENONG MARKET

Fresh & Vibrant Since 1866

Food Discovery Tours

Founded in 1866, Dandenong Market is Melbourne's second oldest and second largest market. We are a working market, known for our hustle and bustle and multicultural food offerings.

On the Food Discovery Tour, visitors can join get exclusive, behind-the-scenes insight into the tantalising aromas and exotic flavours on offer. On this hour-long tour, you will visit select traders for sumptuous tastings and insider secrets from experts.

Food Discovery Tours are free.

Perfect for:

- Foodies passionate about food provenance
- Foodies passionate about multicultural produce and spices
- Locals seeking 'behind-the-scenes' market secrets
- Visitors to Melbourne seeking an authentic market experience
- Coach tours and groups visits
- School groups interested in nutrition and healthy eating
- Work trips for team-building exercises

Private and tailored tours are available on request.

All Food Discovery Tour participants receive a free Dandenong Market shopping bag and delicious samples.

Dandenong Market Food Discovery Tours take place on select Tuesdays and Fridays at 10am and run for one hour.

Coach parking is available on Cleeland Street.

Bookings essential:

info@dandenongmarket.com.au

(03) 9701 3850

dandenongmarket.com.au/about/tours-groups