ABOUT TRADING AT DANDENONG MARKET

INTRODUCTION

Dandenong Market has been a constant for the local community: first opening its doors in 1866, the Market has been the cornerstone of bustling community life for 151 years. Dandenong Market is a meeting place, a place of employment and economic contribution, and a place of community celebration.

Dandenong Market draws visitors from across Melbourne's south east and nearby Gippsland with its unique appeal as a rich and vibrant shopping hub with a strong multicultural and fresh food focus. Home to 200 family-owned businesses, Dandenong Market offers a broad range of fruits, vegetables, meat, fish, poultry, nuts and spices, plants and flowers and general goods such as clothing, toys, accessories, collectibles and gifts. Increasingly, world street food, barista-made coffee and lifestyle shopping are central to the Dandenong Market experience.

We are interested in speaking with retailers that offer quality, value-for-money products that appeals to our diverse community and build upon the Market's reputation as a shopping destination. We are also interested in applicants who are able to offer new and interesting uses not currently available at the Market

SUITABLE USES COULD INCLUDE:

- » Locally grown fresh produce
- » Locally manufactured packaged foods
- » Authentic street foods from around the world
- » Locally designed and/or produced fashion and accessories
- » Toys, games, crafts and hobbies

- » Quality handmade art and handcrafted goods
- » Retail services

WHY DANDENONG MARKET?

Dandenong Market offers small and start-up businesses low start-up fees with flexible licensing arrangements.

Choose from open stalls with minimal start-up capital offering casual, monthly or yearly licenses, to longer term leases with traditional shop fronts that still enjoy the benefits market trading offers.

The Market attracts around 5 million shoppers each year. As well as enjoying strong passing traffic, the direct customer contact the market offers is a great way for retailers to test products and consumer acceptance.

OTHER RETAILER SUPPORT PROGRAMS INCLUDE:

- » Opportunities to participate in regular promotional activities that showcase individual traders businesses.
- » Access to point of sale and other marketing collateral.
- » Access to grants and business support programs through the City of Greater Dandenong.
- » Other leasing / licensing incentives are also available subject to negotiation.

Dandenong Market attracts over 5.4 million visitors a year.

Dandenong Market has 200+ market traders.

Dandenong Market is 152 years old.

Dandenong Market is Melbourne's second largest Market at over 8,000 square metres.

86% of Melburnians agree that traditional markets provide the opportunity to support local farmers and businesses.

Visitors shop at Dandenong Market for variety and choice, as well as quality and freshness.

78% of visitors shop at Dandenong Market regularly; at least once a month.

37% of market shoppers are aged 35 – 54 years.

48% of market visitors speak a language other than English at home.

90% of shoppers drive to Dandenong Market.

85% of Dandenong Market shoppers purchase fresh produce including fruit and vegetables, meat and seafood.
